The Daily Courant.

Thurſday, January 7. 1703.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Jan. 6.

Madrid, Dec. 14.

AN Extraordinary Courier, who arriv'd on the 9th, has brought Advice, that on the 29th of November the King was at Marſeilles; and by another Courier that arriv'd to day we learn that his Majeſty is arriv'd at Figueras, and will continue his Journey without ſtopping: he is expected here with great impatience. The Marqueſs d'Alcannizes, Nephew of the Amirante of Caſtile, who got away from his Unkle, is gone to meet the King; the Queen having done him the honour to appoint him to compliment his Majeſty on his return. The Eſtates of the Amirante, and thoſe that continue with him, are Sequeſtred. The King of Morocco has written a Letter to the Queen, to congratulate her Arrival in this Kingdom, and has ſent to Cardinal Portocarrero 40 Chriſtian Slaves by way of Preſent. Letters from Vigo adviſe, that they have made an end of fiſhing up the Goods out of the Capitana and Amirante of the Galleons that were Sunk. This Day an Edict was publiſh'd Prohibiting the bringing into the Kingdom by the way of Portugal, any Merchandize or Manufactures of England or Holland.

From the Hague Gazette, dated Jan. 8.

Rome, Dec. 16. On Tueſday laſt came the News of the Death of Cardinal Cantelmi Arſhbiſhop of Naples. Immediately Cardinal Janſon mov'd the Pope to prefer the Cardinal del Judice Viceroy of Sicily, to the Archbiſhoprick of Naples, but in vain, His Holineſs deſigning Signior Pignatelli his Nuncio in Poland, to fill that See.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Jan. 11.

According to the Advices from Rome of the 23d of December, it was reported there, that the Project for Peace which was lately ſent by the Pope to the Emperor, contains, among other things, that The Troops of his Imperial Majeſty, and thoſe of the two United Crowns of France and Spain, ſhall all depart out of Italy: But that ſome Spaniſh Troops ſhall be left to guard the Dutchy of Milan: That the Citadel of Mantua ſhall be garriſon'd by the Forces of the Pope and of the Republick of Venice: and that the Duke of Modena ſhall be reeſtabliſh'd in the quiet Poſſeſſion of his Dominion and Revenues. Theſe Letters add, that Advice is come to Rome by an Expreſs from Florence, that the Cardinal de Medicis is made Protector of France, and that withal the King has given him a Penſion of 12000 Crowns, and an Abbey worth 100000 Livres. The Miniſters of France and Spain do all they can to hinder Signior Pignatelli's Promotion to the Archbiſhoprick of Naples, ſuſpecting him to be in the intereſt of the Houſe of Auſtria. The Pope has ſent above 40 Letters, to the Emperor and the Catholick Princes of Germany, in which, after complaining highly of their ſuffering the Engliſh and Dutch to introduce the Exerciſe of the Reform'd Religion into the Towns taken in the Spaniſh Gelderland laſt Campaign; he exhorts them to be more obſervant for the future of the Intereſts of the Holy Church.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Jan. 13.

Vienna, Dec. 30. The Commiſſaries of Proviſions are gone into the Upper Auſtria, to Store the Magazines, for the Uſe of the Troops in Paſſau and other Places. 'Tis ſaid the Elector of Bavaria, in caſe the Imperialiſts invade his Country, will make an Irruption into Bohemia, by way of Diverſion; but due Preparations are making with utmoſt diligence to prevent him; and the Troops appointed to ſerve againſt him, are order'd to hold themſelves in a readineſs to march. Expreſſes are ſent with Diſpatches to the Imperial Envoys at the Courts of England, Denmark and Pruſſia. The Emperor is treating with the King of Denmark for 2000 Men, (beſides the Recruits for the Daniſh Troops in Italy;) The Miniſter of the King of Sweden has offer'd, in the Name of his Maſter, to order his Contingent of the 120000 Men that are to be furniſh'd by the Empire, whither his Imperial Majeſty ſhall appoint. The Duke of Meklenburg Swerin, offers to put 2 Battallions of Foot, and 1 Regiment of Dragoons into the Emperor's Service, on certain Conditions. The Heer Dalman is gone to the Ottoman Port, in quality of the Emperor's Reſident: They begin to be uneaſie here at the Turks Preparations of War.

London, Jan. 6. The Account we gave ſome time ago of an Inſurrection in the Sevennes in Languedoc, (which was communicated to us by a private hand,) is confirm'd, in Subſtance, by the Advices that came in the laſt Mails from Holland; Which tell us, that thoſe who have taken Arms are ſo formidable for their Number and Reſolution, that the Intendant of that Province not being able to Suppreſs them, the King has order'd the Sieurs Julien and Lapara to march with ſome regular Forces to reduce them. In the Hague Gazette of Jan. 8. there is a Letter, concerning them, from the Lower Languedoc, dated Dec. 22. which is to this effect.

SIR,

" YOu have heard, no doubt, of the Diſturbances " that have been in the Sevennes, for ſome " Months paſt; thoſe Diſorders continue ſtill, and " begin to ſpread into our Parts: The number of " People that have done ſo much Miſchief, is at pre- " ſent encreas'd to 2000; they have burnt above " 20 Churches; and now lately that of Fons, " which, you know, is within 4 or 5 Leagues of " Uſez; they have kill'd ſome Ancient Catholicks, " and in ſhort have committed a great many terri- " rible Actions; all the Province is in alarm, Guards " are kept in moſt places, the Gentry retire for ſafe- " ty out of the Country into the great Towns, and " ſo do the Peaſants likewiſe. The Intendant has " publiſh'd an Ordonance, importing, that the New " Catholicks who belong to the Pariſhes of thoſe " Churches that ſhall be burnt, ſhall be at the charge " of Rebuilding them; thoſe that are able paying " for thoſe that are not; and beſides, ſeveral of them " are impriſon'd. Some of the Fanaticks (for the " Catholicks have given them that Name) were ſur- " priz'd at one of their Meetings at Aigues-Vives, " ſeveral of which were hang'd and others ſent to " the

" the Galleys. 'Tis to Worſhip God that they meet " together; when they are attack'd they defend " themſelves bravely, and generally come off very " well. What will be the iſſue of theſe things is " yet uncertain, mean time our Country is in a la- " mentable condition, every body being in fear of " their Lives, or at leaſt of having their Houſes " burnt, as many have been already; Almoſt all " the Prieſts have left their Pariſhes, for ſeveral of " them have been murther'd ſince theſe Diſturban- " ces began.

Dartmouth, Jan. 3. This day came in the Monmouth Privateer of Guernſey carrying 10 Guns and 50 Men, who took yeſterday and ſent into Guernſey a great Ship under Daniſh Colours, but ſuppoſed to be a Dunkirker, the Maſter is on board the Monmouth, but they can get nothing out of him yet: They report that the Proſperous Privateer of Guernſey hath lately taken 2 French Ships laden with Salt.

Plymouth, Jan. 3. This day came in the Hopewell, Sarah, Mary and Elizabeth, all of Boſton; the Phenix, Hope, 2 Maſt Ships of London, the Jane of Jerſey, and a Ship of Topſham, all for London, in 6 Weeks from New-England; with the Bloſſom Brigantine from Nevis for London, all under Convoy of the Dreadnaught.

Cowes, Jan. 4. Yeſterday ſailed all the Merchant Ships mention'd in my laſt without Convoy; but the Wind turning, 'tis believ'd they are not paſſed the Iſle.

Plimouth, Jan. 3. This day came into this Harbour the Robert and Frances of Briſtol from Jamaica in 10 Weeks; they confirm the Account of Admiral Benbowe's Ingagement with Monſieur du Caſſe, who had but 4 Men of War, the Admiral had 7, but 4 of his did not Ingage; for which they report, that Capt. Kirby and 2 other Captains are Sentenced by a Court-Marſhal to be Shot to Death, but it was not Executed upon them at their coming away; had they ſtood by the Admiral, du Caſſe had been taken with his Ships. They report, that du Caſſe came into ſome Spaniſh Harbour in thoſe Parts, where 15 Jamaica Privateers were together Storming a Town and took them all.
